

B-Roll: Tiger Activities 3

Title: Ranger Patrols; River Patrol

Date: January 2010

Story: The protection of designated areas is vital to the conservation of the landscapes and species living inside. WWF along with local authorities monitor the status. Rivers are a major highway within the protected areas so patrolling these are vitally important.

Location: Mondulkiri Protected Forest, Mereuch, Cambodia.

Sound: Channels 1&2 Natural sound

Aspect Ratio: 16.9

Format: Sony XDCAM full HD 1920x1080 PAL 25P

Clip Duration: 9 mins 35 secs

Copyright: WWF

Credit: Stephen Hogg/WWF

Shot List:

00:00:00:00 – 00:00:24:08
Bailing out the boat for a day on the river

00:00:24:08 – 00:00:31:01
AK 47 M/C GUN

00:00:31:01 – 00:01:03:19
Lunch boat start patrol

00:01:03:19 – 00:01:17:05
Checking location and recording gps position

00:01:17:05 – 00:03:16:09

River bank scenes en-route

00:03:16:09 – 00:03:43:06

Armed Guard looking for poachers

00:03:43:06 – 00:05:01:07

Navigating tricky obstacles and shallow water with pole

00:05:01:07 - 00:05:08:02

Weapon in the bottom of leaking boat

00:05:08:02 – 00:06:12:15

Ranger in front of boat continue patrol

00:06:12:15 – 00:07:15:14

Boat patrol viewed from shore, landing to check local fisherman hut.

00:07:15:14 – 00:08:59:15

Local fisherman hut and lunch with local fisherman

00:08:59:15 – 00:09:35:17

Boat leaves shore to return to camp observed from shore.